The Indian Government was caught spreading lies and the main stream media in India reported about it.

How is it possible that this evidence is missing from the knowledge of a professional investigative reporter? How is it possible that the brave revelations of the pilots of Air India 113 are so widely ignored, even so by the proclaimed 'honest' reporters and media?

When I search on your website 0 results are found: <http://www.globalresearch.ca/search?...113%22&x=0&y=0>

Just a few days after MH17 was shot down on July, 17th, I posted the link from India Times on my Facebook profile. In the next year I searched for responses, blog posts or news items related to Air India 113 and discovered that literally no media in The Netherlands, not even amateur investigative journalists or conspiracy sites, were reporting anything about it.

I then started tipping all blogs, conspiracy sites, critical news sites and main stream media in The Netherlands about the missing coverage of the revelation of the Air India 113 pilots and the attention from main stream media in India that shows that the revelation was taken for truth by main stream journalists.

No reply or action followed.

I was thunderstruck.

I started to insist on coverage, posted public comments with articles and I posted a complaint about the missing coverage to MH17 memorial sites and Facebook pages in an attempt to make relatives aware that their missing attention may lead to adverse effects for people who stand for justice and truth on behalf of the victims (now or in the future), such as the pilots of flight Air India 113 who had at that point effectively been ignored for more then 1 year by all Dutch media, including small blogs and investigative reporters.

I would like to ask you why the pilots of Air India 113 are concealed in your reports about MH17.

Thanks in advance for your time to reply!
